

Kickoff Sunday

Before you leave today, if you haven't already, be sure to pick up our copy of Irresistible Invitation: Responding to the Extravagant Heart of God. It's a forty-day study that our entire church will be going through together and you simply don't want to miss it. This is going to be a great opportunity to grow in faith and stretch your spirit. It's the event of the season, and your name is on the list.

So what should you expect? For starters, plan now to set aside a few extra minutes each day to go over the readings and prayerfully consider the topics presented. They're certain to speak straight to your heart. Count on something else, too: being a part of the big picture as our entire congregation moves through the study together. We'll talk about the concepts in our Sunday school/small group meetings, and the pastor's messages will offer further insight each week. There's no telling how God can move among us when we're all on the same page – literally.

The study will finish with Commitment Sunday, a chance for you to renew your vows of commitment and see what God will do in return. Now's the time to start fresh, to look ahead, and to be expectant that God will accomplish great things right here in our church body. What are you waiting for?
